

Security at Convention

The SUMA Convention is considered a closed show. Therefore, it is necessary to take precautionary measures to ensure the safety of all registered delegates.

Tradeshow

The tradeshow is only open to registered delegates and municipal employees. Delegates must display their name badge at all times. Other municipal employees wanting to attend the tradeshow can be issued a “TRADESHOW OBSERVER” badge from registration. SUMA will have a security guard at the tradeshow ensuring that all participants present a badge for admittance.

Convention

The convention is only open to registered delegates. All attendees must display their name badge at all times. The “TRADESHOW OBSERVER” badge does not qualify as a pass to attend sessions at Convention.

Events

The Optional Excursions are open only to people who have purchased access to the event. All attendees must bring their name badge to be scanned in order to get on the bus.

The Welcome Reception is open to all delegates and anyone that has purchased additional tickets to the event. Delegates must present their name badge to access the event. Others must bring their ticket with them and present them to staff members at the door before entering the event.

The President’s Gala is open to all delegates and anyone that has purchased additional tickets to the event. All attendees must bring their ticket with them and present them to staff members at the door before entering the event. Delegate name badges do not need to be worn at this event.
