There are about six meetings per year in Regina, with members receiving a per diem and expenses. Board members are appointed annually by the Minister of Environment.

Please contact Susan Dishaw at SUMA via email at sdishaw@suma.org no later than Friday, March 9 if you have a suitably experienced, non-elected representative of water/wastewater plant "owners" willing to serve.

SUMA Urban Voice Changes

In the next couple of weeks, the 'new' Urban Voice magazine will arrive in subscribers' mail boxes.

What makes it 'new'? First, we've engaged a different publisher, Craig Kelman Associates, who for over a decade have produced a high-quality magazine for one of our sister associations in Manitoba.

Second, you'll notice the size. This new magazine is packed with content - 48 pages in total!

Third, SUMA is moving to a quarterly publication (spring, summer, fall and winter) to better serve our readers and advertisers.

And last, urban municipal recipients of the publication will notice a change in the way their magazines are delivered. In the past one package containing a magazine for each council member and one for the town office was sent, beginning with the March 2012 edition the Urban Voice will arrive at your address as individual stand-alone magazines with a mailing label only. This is both a cost-saving and environmentally friendly move, as it removes the need for envelopes or additional packaging.

Happy reading!
