Crime Prevention

- Changing the rural culture
- Locking up out-buildings, equipment, fuel, firearms and vehicles
- Consider installing improved lighting or surveillance cameras
- Keep an eye out for yourself and your neighbours
- Gun Amnesty program

Community Engagement

- Detachments engaging with communities through town hall meetings/Detachment Commander is your Chief of Police
- Community Familiarization project
- Enhancing engagement with key stakeholders such as SUMA, SARM, and the FSIN
- Encouraging community-owned, police-supported initiatives (e.g, Rural Crime Watch, Citizens on Patrol Program)

Root Causes of Crime

- Developing strategies and solutions through partnerships
- Community Programs (at-risk youth programs, domestic violence shelters, addictions treatment, gang exit strategies)
- Community safety/justice committees
- HUBs/PACT and other inter-agency initiatives

Intelligence-led Policing

- Effective policing begins with intelligence and analysis
- Utilizing information to identify “hot spots” and strategically deploy resources
- Tracking chronic, prolific offenders
- Reporting crime is critical
- Positive impacts (reduction in calls for service, crime)
